Herzing University Kenosha Campus located in Wisconsin uses Booktracks to Manage their Textbooks

By combining traditional instruction with hands-on training, students at Herzing develop and practice the skills they will need for their career.

Building upon Herzing's rich 45-year history of preparing students for in-demand careers, the Herzing University - Kenosha campus offers educational programs in:

- Healthcare
- Business
- Technology
- Design
- Public Safety

The cost of tuition covers the use of textbooks. Booktracks will be used to track and manage the textbooks and equipment used by the students and teachers.

Because some textbooks contain subjects that will be taught for different loan periods, Book Systems added a new feature allowing the staff to select a different loan period upon check-out. Customer's request for enhancements are part of each new release of the software.
